

Premium Sake List

Cup Sake

Kikumasanmune Cup (SMV:+10)

180ml $8.25

Simple flavors that play nice with food, but add that extra umami taste to your palate with an easy, soft, dry finish.

Kunizakari Nigori Cup (SMV:-5)

200ml $9.95

A sweet, plush, and velvety nigori which still contains the rice granules from the fermentation process. It has a rustic quality that is comforting in its simplicity. Medium-full bodied.

Junmai

Kimoto (SMV: +6)

500ml $22.00

Kimoto is the oldest style of making sake. It brings out aromas of flowers and nougat. Medium-bodied with a rich, smooth, nutty, and almost creamy mouth feel. Finishes dry.

Asahiya (SMV: +7)

Glass: $12.00 Bottle:$36.00

With a sturdy, dry finish, the aftertaste is sharp and clean. Perfect for those who love dry sake.

Kurobin (SMV: +5)

Glass: $12.00 Bottle:$36.00

With all things considered, including aroma and impact, the main attraction of this Kurobin is its refined taste from the unique acidity for which the Yaegaki Brewery is famous.

Kurosawa (SMV: +2)

Glass: $16.00 Bottle:$48.00

This sake boasts a natural Kimoto flavor, which is full-bodied and earthy, yet light. It is exquisitely balanced and masterfully brewed as the almighty sake.
